PICNICKED AT PENINSULA. Sunday School of Christian Church

Enjoys Outing. Under the trees at the Peninsula yesterday the Sunday school children of the Christian Church, with their parents and and Mrs. C. S. Crane were guests friends, enjoyed an outing that will be long remembered. It was the annual picnie of the Sunday school, the event that is looked forward to by the children of me Volcano House. Hawaii. the churcles as the crowning event of a Cummins and party spent the midaummer season, and yesterday's given in the history of the church. Two hundred and fitty people, laden with baskets and hampers containing everything that is imaginable in the category of good things to eat, boarded the special train in the morning. It was a short run to the pichic grounds, and the crowd spread about the lovely grounds and the lawn was soon dotted with groups of morry young people in summer gowns and white ducks. There were baseball games between the young and by Contral Union church an old men and other games for the little copie, but no set program, every one ennoting the day as best suited his or her inclinations. Row-boats were put at the disposal of the picnickers by the managers of the grounds, and many spent the morning on the water. The luncheon was spread under the trees and here at noon all gathered, songs the Minwera brought a and national airs being sung during the in the afternoon Rev. John C. Hay, pastor of the church, gave a short talk and there was singing of hymns and national airs. Then there were more games, and it was not until late that the train pulled out for the city laden with a very tired but very happy lot of excursion-

At the Orpheum.

The aumence at the Orpheum last night crowded the house to the doors. Good humor prevailed and much apof Handulu are registered at the plause was given the actors and actresses. It was the only evening attraction for the Fourth, save the Myrtle dance, and a better bill could not have been selected. There is no need of going into the details of the bill, for the the superintendent of public ed houses. Last evening all the actors contained his 42d birthday years were at their best and the bill went with a dash. Wolff kept the house laughing calem house force divided the from the first. At the climax of every plar, buil taking their helblay act the curtain went up in answer to serning and the other half in the encore after encore. When the "Stars and Stripes Forever" was introduced the house went wild with excitement, and it was rendered several times in order to satisfy the people. At the end of the piece Miss Tillie Sallinger sang, by request, the "Star Spangled Banner," while the full company and the audience, standing, entered with a spirit in

Will Not Sell Out.

The Rapid Transit Company is not considering seiling out to the Hawaiian Tramways Company. Such a rumor was on the street yesterday but was absolutely without foundation. The Rapid Transit Company is laying plans and rails for a betterment of the street car system of Honolulu and has no thought of selling out, say those who are at its head.

Carried Away.

The friends of Habgen of the Honolulu Steam Laundry who is alleged to have skipped the country with money belonging to that establishment, say he was carried away by the Rio de Janeiro by accident while in a state of intexication.
